HO 1

Read and click on/write the correct answers.

1. Why can't you can't hear the /t/ in wouldn't eat and the /d/ in I'd try?

   Because /t/ and /d/ sounds have other consonants/vowels around them. We call this a consonant group.

2. Which is /d/' s consonant group in I'd try? _____
3. Which is /t/' s consonant group in wouldn't eat ? _____

4. Do /t/ and /d/ sounds always disappear when they are in a consonant group? Not always, but usually when someone speaks fast/slow and in friendly/serious conversations.

REMEMBER!

LISTENING TIP 1: Expect to hear/ not to hear the /t/ and /d/ sounds at the end of words if they are in a consonant group.
