

Health & Illness - Ways of hurting

1- Complete the sentences with the right verb. Don't forget to put them in the right tense or form according to the context:

Sprain – ache – puke – heal – scratch – treat – stab – strain – care – cure

1. He was from Covid-19. Luckily, He overcame it quite soon.
2. I've been putting disinfectant to this wound but it doesn't seem to
3. Not much research was done for the discovery of new for Coronavirus.
4. She contracted a severe infection and had to go into the intensive unit.
5. I my arms by lifting weights for two hours without a previous warm-up.
6. After watering the rose bushes, I realised I had my hands.
7. He was hurt in the abdomen after someone him.
8. Something was wrong with the dinner, I spent the night
9. Give me an aspirin!! My head has been all day long.
10. He landed awkwardly after the high jump and his ankle. Luckily it's not broken.

2- Match the underlined words with its definitions:

- | |
|---|
| a. suffering bodily pain from wounds, bruises, etc. |
| b. a sudden and uncontrolled spasm of a muscle. |
| c. to strike repeatedly with force, as with an instrument, the fist, etc. |
| d. rigid or firm, not moving. |

1. Aught! I can hardly move my neck, it is so stiff, I was lifting heavy boxes all day yesterday
2. Stop making that noise with the hammer, I've got a pounding headache.
3. Julie got a cramp in her calf muscles while she was running.
4. I cut my finger yesterday opening a can, it is a bit sore today.

3- Drag & drop the right words to complete the sentences:

bruises	blisters	bump	swelling	scar	rash	outbreak
---------	----------	------	----------	------	------	----------

1. What's that in your abdomen? It's the left after my operation of appendicitis.
2. After the fight, he was left with a black-eye and ll over his abdomen.
3. I hit my head against the wall when I got up this morning, now I have a painful
4. I wear these boots for the first time and I'm afraid they can cause me
5. The doctor warned Miss Emily not to put any weight on her ankle until the went down.
6. I'm afraid I'm allergic to dog's hair, whenever I touch one I got a on my skin.
7. Half the class is missing due to the current flu

4- Listen and fill in the gaps with the right options. There are three extra words:

insane - dizzy – swollen – runny – sore – burnt - queasy - feverish – fainted - vertigo – sick
--

1. When I stood up, the room seemed to be going round. I felt really
2. I'm not in pain but the glands in my neck seem to be
3. I've got a  nose. I suppose it's a cold coming on.
4. It's like being sea-sick. I feel  whenever I move about.
5. My throat's awfully  I hope it's not another bout of tonsillitis.
6. I haven't taken her temperature yet but her face is flushed and she seems
7. As I heard about her accident I
8. The problems with his ears caused him attacks of 