

Choose the correct option to complete each option:

Plastic 1. will have been poisoning / will be poisoning our planet for hundreds of years into the future.

And without action, the amount of plastic 2. will continue / will be continuing to increase.

Soon, we 3. will have been recycling / will recycle plastic for 50 years – but to limited effect.

Luckily, there is some good news. In the next ten years, eco-friendly alternatives made from seaweed or sugarcane 4. will have been replacing / will have replaced some plastic packaging and products.

The Lego® company, for example, says that by 2030 it 5. will be changing over / will have changed over to bioplastic Lego bricks.

Over the next few years, companies 6. will be trialing / will have been trialing shampoo and shower gel bottles made from paper.

What 7. will you be doing / will you have done in the next year to reduce plastic waste?