

Vocabulary Mazes for EOT 3 Exam – G12 ADV

Maze 1

Many people today are interested in alternative therapy and home remedies because they want to use more natural ways to improve their health. These methods may include herbal treatments, special diets, or relaxing activities. For example, a therapist may recommend a soothing (1) _____ made from natural ingredients to help reduce pain or stress. However, it is important to check the (2) _____ of any remedy and be aware of possible side effects or an allergic reaction.

The human body has many amazing systems. The heart contains four chambers, which are spaces inside this powerful organ. The heart's (3) _____ work continuously to contract and relax, allowing it to pump blood around the body. Like a clock's "tick tock," this rhythm continues every second of our lives.

During a disease outbreak, some people may be more (4) _____ to infections. A virus can spread when it is transmitted from one person to another. Scientists study every new strain, especially when a mutation creates an unusual or hybrid virus. Vaccination can help protect people from serious diseases.

Some patients visit specialists such as (5) _____ for skin problems or (6) _____ for medicine advice. Others may choose alternative treatments because they (7) _____ and believe these methods suit their lifestyle. Sometimes, people also (8) _____ after learning more about their health choices.

Options:

- | | | | |
|--------------------|------------------------|------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. A. strip | 2. A. vaccination | 3. A. symptoms | 4. A. susceptible |
| B. mixture | B. mutation | B. cardiac muscles | B. adventure-prone |
| C. chamber | C. effectiveness | C. bruises | C. contagious |
| 5. A. a pharmacist | 6. A. a pediatrician | 7. A. transmit a virus | 8. A. have bruises |
| B. an orthodontist | B. a pharmacist | B. follow their heart | B. have a chamber |
| C. a dermatologist | C. an anesthesiologist | C. peel their skin | C. have a change of heart |

Maze 2

Many people are now exploring different ways to maintain good health, including alternative therapy and traditional home remedies. Some people use natural methods to support medical treatment, while others choose them to avoid unnecessary (1) _____. For example, certain plants can be used to create treatments that may help (2) _____ pain and improve comfort. However, people should always consult a professional before trying any new remedy.

Health problems can affect different parts of the body. A patient with eye problems may visit (3) _____, while someone with problems related to the nervous system may need a neurologist. Older people often receive care from a geriatrician who understands their special health needs.

Experts also study diseases carefully, especially when a new (4) _____ appears. In some cases, a virus may change because of a mutation, creating a new form that spreads quickly. Such situations can be challenging because the effects may be (5) _____ and different from previous experiences.

Some people are interested in activities that make them (6) _____, such as outdoor experiences and trying new challenges. Others prefer relaxing methods that provide a (7) _____ feeling. Whatever method people choose, they should understand the possible risks and focus on the (8) _____ of the treatment.

Options:

- | | | | |
|--------------------|--------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|
| 1. A. chamber | 2. A. relieve | 3. A. an osteopath | 4. A. outbreak |
| B. side effects | B. transmit | B. a psychiatrist | B. hybrid virus |
| C. cardiac muscles | C. contract | C. an ophthalmologist | C. mixture |
| 5. A. hollow | 6. A. contagious | 7. A. soothing | 8. A. effectiveness |
| B. contagious | B. susceptible | B. hollow | B. outbreak |
| C. unprecedented | C. adventure-prone | C. relieve | C. vaccination |