Read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

Marlin the Wizard lived in a small house near a forest. He was a good wizard, but he sometimes forgot things. One morning, he wanted to visit the king, so he opened his closet and chose his magic clothes.

First, he put on his blue hat. The hat helped him remember things. Then he wore his green coat. The coat could make him invisible. Next, he put on his red boots. The boots could help him run very fast. "Now I'm ready!" he said.

As he walked to the king's castle, he met a little girl. She was crying because her cat was in a tall tree. "I can help," said Marlin.

Marlin put on a pair of magic gloves. The gloves helped him climb quickly. Soon, he reached the cat and carried it safely back to the ground. The girl thanked him and gave him a flower.

When Marlin arrived at the castle, the king laughed.

"Why are you laughing?" asked the wizard.

The king pointed to a mirror. Marlin looked at his reflection and suddenly understood. He was wearing one red boot and one yellow boot.

Marlin laughed too. His magic clothes could do many wonderful things, but they could not stop him from making silly mistakes.
