

1. The road was blocked, so we had to return.
2. I need to return to the shop — I forgot my wallet.
3. The president went back to his country after the summit.
4. The hikers returned when they saw a dangerous storm ahead.
5. The car returned before reaching the border because the road was closed.
6. Let's return to the hotel. I'm tired.
7. The soldiers returned after receiving an order to stop the mission.
8. The climbers went back because an avalanche blocked the route.
9. The ambassador went back to the embassy after the meeting.
10. The tourists returned when they noticed a bear on the trail.
11. I need to return to my flat — I left the keys there.
12. The explorers went back because they had run out of food.
13. The king went back to his castle after the battle.
14. The travellers returned because the road ahead was flooded.
15. The scientist went back to the laboratory to continue the experiment.