LISTENING VOCABULARY

Word Bank Fill in the Blanks

1

Woman 1: Good morning. You are through to Maria. How can I help you?

Woman 2: I need to talk to someone about my mobile phone.

Woman 1: Can you tell me the problem, please?

Woman 2: Well, I bought my phone about four weeks ago and I think there must be something wrong with the (1) _____. Even if I (2) _____ it up every night, I only seem to get about 10 minutes talking time. I took it back to the shop but they didn't want to know.

Woman 1: Oh. That sounds strange. The shop should really (3) _____ it. We'll let you have a special (4) _____ so you can send it back to us.

2

Woman: John hates any kind of fuss. Do you remember when he found out that we'd bought him a birthday cake last year? He was (5) _____. But this is different because he's getting married.

3

Woman: Based on what your teachers say, you could (6) _____ to study almost any subject at university. Don't decide until you've had a chat with one of the (7) _____ in the different departments.

4

Man: This is a great (8) _____. The town has needed somewhere like this for ages. If things go well, people will be able to (9) _____ through newspapers and magazines while enjoying coffee.

5

The storms brought (10) _____ rain, and public transport services are already (11) _____ by the severe weather conditions. Unless your journey is absolutely (12) _____, you should not travel.

6

One guy last week gave me the wrong address, so the (13) _____ was a lot. I had a right old (14) _____ with him over the price.

7

The old photographs were (15) _____. On one wall there was a collection of old (16) _____, which must have been (17) _____ because they were so old and faded.

8

Lay the paper flat on the table. It isn't going to be (18) _____. Now you need a pencil, a (19) _____ and a rubber before you draw around the shape.

WORD BANK (20 words)

battery	charge	deal with	envelope	furious
apply	lecturers	opportunity	browse	torrential
disrupted	essential	fare	fascinating	folded
ruler	argument	wandered	advertisement	bowling

LIVEWORKSHEETS