Vocabulary EXTRA! Extension

Unit 1

1 Choose the correct word.

To: Mike From: Anna Subject: Hello!

Hi Mike,

I'm really (1) bored / fed up ☹☹☹. There's a party tonight and I can't go because I can't (2) get over / get out of my cold. I'm sure it'll be really fun and I'm (3) lonely / angry that I'm at home. Mum and Dad have gone out to see a film about sharks. I don't know why. Mum is (4) terrified of / worried by sharks! LOL

Anyway, while I was sitting here feeling (5) lonely / nervous, I suddenly remembered that I haven't replied to your email. So, now I feel (6) tired / embarrassed 😐😐😐 instead of (7) pleased / miserable, which is better.

I was really (8) pleased / scared ☺☺☺ when I got your last mail. You sounded really (9) bored / happy. I was really (10) worried / frightened that you'd be unhappy when you went away. I can't wait for you to (11) get back / get over for Christmas. I want you to meet Danny, my new boyfriend. He's great – I'm sure you'll (12) get away / get on. I'm so (13) excited / pleased I can't sleep.

Unit 2

1 Choose the correct word.

To: Kerry From: Sophia Subject: Great film

Hi Kerry,

How are things?

I saw a great film last night. It was (1) awful / silly / amazing. I know you don't like (2) science fiction / horror / action films because you're not interested in space and the future, but you really should see this one. I don't know how they (3) came up with / gave up / grew up the story but it was (4) excellent / boring / disappointing, both (5) silly / terrible / interesting and (6) thrilling / awful / dull. I won't tell you what happens as you won't enjoy it so much if you watch it.

It's called 'The Hunger Games' and it's on at the cinema in town. You can (7) turn up / look up / set up the times on their website. Actually, I'd like to see it again, so I could go and (8) give up / pick up / stand up some tickets for us. What do you think?

Love, Sophia
