THE BEGINNING OF THE FOOTBALL WORLD CUP

Rimet was a French football administrator and third President of FIFA. He was the one who had the initiative of starting the FIFA World Cup in 1930. He decided to play the first cup in Uruguay because the sport was very popular in South America.

But European teams thought travelling to Uruguay was too much. They had to travel by boat and the tournament plus the journey took three complete months. So, many decided not to take part. It was the only time the Cup didn't need qualification because all the countries affiliated to the FIFA were invited and only had to confirm their participation. The countries that took part included Uruguay, Argentina, Brazil, Bolivia, Chile, Mexico, Paraguay, Peru, the USA, France, Belgium, Romania and Yugoslavia. So, only thirteen countries played the Cup and seven of them were South American! The winner of the 1930 FIFA World Cup was Uruguay, and Argentina came second. Four years later, the World Cup was held in Italy because European countries wanted to participate but not to travel long distances. So, Uruguay didn't compete as a sign of protest, becoming the only champion that hasn't defended its title in the next cup. After the France World Cup in 1938, the tournament stopped until the Second World War finished. The FIFA committee met again in 1946 in Luxembourg, but they couldn't fix a quick date for the next football cup, which had to wait until 1950. Since then, the Football World Cup has never been interrupted again.

Underwater rugby

'Underwater rugby' is an unusual sport. People usually think that it's similar to rugby, 1 _____ it isn't. You play underwater, 2 _____ you have to be able to swim well.

The game has two halves. In the middle, the game stops and the players have a break. There are two teams. One team 3 _____ wears white and the other team wears blue or black. This is to make it easy to see 4 _____ is on your team. Each team has 11 players. But only six people from each team can be in the water. It's very difficult to swim 5 _____ under water for a long time.

So the other five players are substitutes: they go in and play 6 _____ the other players get tired. Men and women 7 _____ play in the same team.

There are two goals, one at each end of the swimming pool. They are as big 8 _____ baskets in basketball but they are on the bottom of the pool. To score a goal, you 9 _____ put the ball in the basket. You mustn't attack another player. If you do, you 10 _____ to be out of the water for two minutes and your team must play with only five people, not six.
