Dear Sarah,

Last weekend, the weather was very bad. It rained all day, so I decided to make a special snack for my family. I found a great recipe in a magazine and went to the kitchen. First, I looked inside the fridge to see 1.1 _____ we had. I wanted to make a pizza, 1.2 _____ we didn't have any cheese or tomatoes.

So, I made some chocolate biscuits. I mixed some flour, butter and sugar in a big bowl. Then, I put them in the oven. After twenty minutes, the kitchen 1.3 _____ of chocolate. When my parents tasted the biscuits, they said they were the 1.4 _____ biscuits in the world! My little brother liked them so 1.5 _____ that he ate four of them!

See you soon!
Love from Betty
