

10A GRAMMAR relative clauses: defining and non-defining

- a Complete the article with who, which, where, or whose.

We asked students to tell us about their favourite things in life. This week, Elena, a student from Brazil, tells us about hers.

A place

My favourite place in the world is the town ¹*where* I was born. I've travelled all over the world, but it's still the place ²_____ I love the most.

A song

A song...that's an easy one! It's Yellow by Coldplay, for two reasons. Firstly, it was the colour of the dress ³_____ I was wearing the night I met my husband. Secondly, it was the song ⁴_____ the DJ played as we danced.

A number

The number ⁵_____ I've chosen is the number nine. My grandmother, ⁶_____ used to live with us when I was a child, always asked me to get her a lottery ticket with this number. I think that's why I like it so much.

A photo

I've chosen a black and white photo of my parents, ⁷_____. I've had for about 20 years. Every time I look at it, I can see two happy people in their early twenties, ⁸_____ lives were about to change forever. Why? Well, because my mum was pregnant with me in the photo!

A person

My English teacher at school was the woman ⁹_____ inspired me to love languages. So, I've chosen her to be my favourite person.

An animal

Animals? No question about it! The animals ¹⁰_____ I like most are dogs.

A shop

The shop ¹¹_____ I could spend all day would be one selling perfumes and cosmetics.

An object

Finally, an object ¹²_____ is very special to me is my engagement ring, because it used to belong to my husband's grandmother. It's beautiful.

- b In which sentences could you also use that? In which sentences could you leave out who or which?
- c Combine the two sentences using a non-defining relative clause.

- Our neighbours have lived next door to us for 15 years. They're both teachers.
Our neighbours, who are both teachers, have lived next door to us for 15 years.
- Sydney is well known for its Opera House and Harbour Bridge. Many people think it's the capital of Australia.
Sydney, _____, is well known for its Opera House and Harbour Bridge.
- Our local post office has closed down. My grandmother used to work there.
Our local post office, _____, has closed down.
- Pablo Picasso was one of the world's most famous artists. His best known painting is Guernica.
Pablo Picasso, _____, was one of the world's most famous artists.
- The hurricane was the worst storm for over a century. It hit the city of New Orleans.
The hurricane, _____, was the worst storm for over a century.
- Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was an extremely talented composer. He died when he was 35.
Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, _____, was an extremely talented composer.

ACTIVATION

Read the article in a again. Write a paragraph about your favourite things in life.