UP English Center

Name: _____

Class: _____

1. Look at the World Time Zone Map and Complete the Table.

When it is 8:00 a.m. in Vietnam, what time is it in these places?

London	1:00 a.m.
Paris
Dubai
Tokyo
Sydney
New York

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Write the verbs in the present perfect. Then write since or for.

Hello! My name is Lucy. I _____ (live) in Da Nang _____ I was three years old.

I _____ (learn) English _____ four years. I really enjoy my English lessons.

I _____ (know) my best friend, Anna, _____ Grade 1. We play together every weekend.

My family _____ (have) a cat _____ two years. Its name is Snow. It likes sleeping on my bed.

My dad _____ (work) in a hospital _____ 2018. My mum _____ (teach) at a primary school _____ many years.

I love reading. I _____ (read) lots of storybooks _____ I was little.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Read the passage. Then answer the questions.

Different Times Around the World

Today, it is easier than ever to talk to people around the world. However, people in different countries do not always have the same time because they live in different time zones. For example, Vietnam is 6 hours ahead of Egypt. When it is 8:00 a.m. in Vietnam, it is only 2:00 a.m. in Egypt. Most people in Egypt are still sleeping. South Korea is 2 hours ahead of Vietnam. If it is 8:00 a.m. in Vietnam, it is 10:00 a.m. in South Korea. Children are usually having lessons at school. Brazil is 10 hours behind Vietnam. When children in Vietnam are eating dinner at 7:00 p.m., many people in Brazil are just having breakfast at 9:00 a.m. New Zealand is 5 hours ahead of Vietnam. When it is 8:00 a.m. in Vietnam, it is 1:00 p.m. in New Zealand. Many people are already studying or working. Knowing about time zones helps people choose the best time to call their friends, watch live sports, or join online meetings.

1. Why do people in different countries have different times?

2. Why are many people in Egypt still sleeping when it is 8:00 a.m. in Vietnam?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Minh wants to call his friend in Egypt at 8:00 a.m. Vietnam time. Is it a good idea? Why or why not?

4. Which country in the passage would you like to visit? Give two reasons

5. Imagine you have a friend in another country. What questions would you ask before calling?

4. Write about how people celebrate New Year's Eve in your country.
Write about 50–70 words.
Think about:

- when people celebrate New Year's Eve
- where they celebrate
- what people do
- what food they eat
- how they feel

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS