

- 2 Complete the questions using the correct form of have to. Then match them to the answers.

- 1 Do you ever have to tell your teacher that you haven't done your homework? A
- 2 Do you have to take a packed lunch to school? ☐
- 3 Do you have to get the bus to school? ☐
- 4 Do you have to wear a school uniform? ☐
- 5 Does your brother ever have to help you with your schoolwork? ☐
- 6 Do your parents sometimes have to collect you from school? ☐

- a Yes, sometimes – when I've forgotten to do it!
- b No, we can wear what we want at my school.
- c Yes, with maths. He's much better at it than me.
- d No, I can eat in the school café.
- e Yes, if I'm sick and I need to go home.
- f No, I usually ride my bike – it's not far.

Object pronouns

- 3 Look at the pictures from Jake's photo album. Complete what he says with the pronouns in the boxes.

him he us

This is Mr Jones, our history teacher. (1) He teaches (2) us three times a week, and everyone likes (3) him.

it they we us

I live with my family in this house. (4) we all love (5) it because there's a big garden. But my grandparents don't agree. (6) they think the garden is too much work for my parents. So, Grandma sometimes comes to help (7) us with our garden.

I it them they

These are my two older sisters.

(8) They both live in America. (9) They went to visit (10) me last summer. (11) It was a great trip.

Reading Part 5

First, read the whole text so you know what it is about. Then read each sentence carefully before you put a word in a gap.

Exam advice

- 1 For each question, write the correct answer. Write one word for each gap.

To: Anna

From: Sally

How's it going? (0) Are you excited about starting at our new school next week? I've just been into town with Mum to buy my uniform. I think it's much better (1) than the one we had at our old school - especially the jumpers and T-shirts. (2) They are both quite cool!

See what you think.

From: Sally

To: Anna

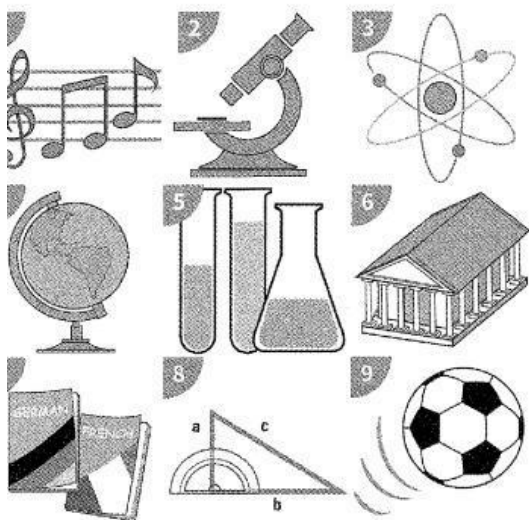

Yes, I agree (3) with you about the new school uniform. (4) It isn't as bad as our old one! Anyway, I still need to get (5) some few things, so Mum says we have (6) to go shopping in town tomorrow. I'll let you know when I've got everything!

6

Vocabulary extra

School and education

- 1 Look at the pictures. Put the letters in the right order to make the name of a school subject. Then match it with the examples of what you might study for that subject.

Subjects

Examples

- | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1 scimu music | a what happened in the past |
| 2 lygoibo | b how to play an instrument |
| 3 sicshyp | c what salt is made of |
| 4 pygagrohe | d how to play football or tennis |
| 5 mythreics | e mountains and rivers |
| 6 soithyr | f German, Spanish and French |
| 7 agluagnse | g animal and plant life |
| 8 tasmh | h electricity and space |
| 9 trop | i how to add numbers |

- 2 Complete the sentences with the correct form of a verb in the box.

collect fail leave repeat study teach write

- When I want to learn a new word, I repeat repeat it to myself lots of times.
- When I school, I want to study at university.
- It's important to do well in this exam, so I really don't want to
- Peter never wants to at home by himself – he prefers playing football!
- Mr Matthews us Maths and I understand everything in his classes.
- Our teacher usually our homework on Tuesdays and gives it back to us on Fridays.
- Janine often stories when she's at home – she has lots of great ideas.

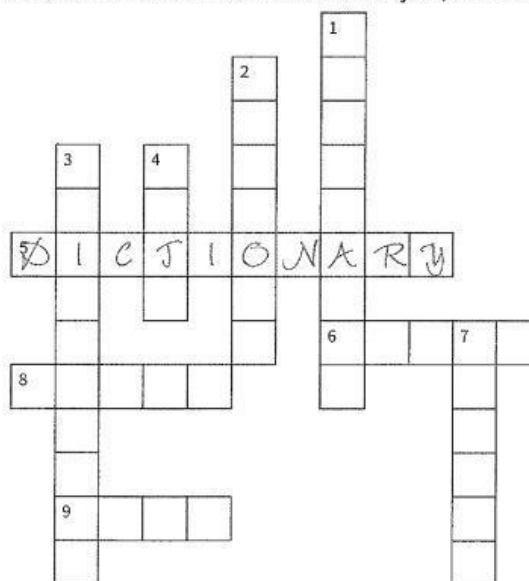

- 3 Read the clues and complete the crossword.

Across

- You look for new words in this.
- You eat this meal in the middle of the day.
- You have this short rest between lessons.
- Your teacher will give you this to see how well you have understood your lessons.

Down

- This tells you which classes you have each day.
- This paper shows you have passed exams in a subject.
- You might want to study here after you leave school.
- You mustn't be this for your lessons!
- This is a number of classes on one subject, often with an exam at the end.

Have you got any homework?