Confusing words 1

1, Continual vs. Continuous a, The baby's _____ crying throughout the night kept everyone in the house awake.

b, I'm getting tired of these _____ arguments between the management and the staff; they happen every single week.

c, To achieve a high band score in IELTS, _____ practice over a period of several months is essential, even if you take short breaks on weekends.

2, Control vs. Inspect a, Customs officers at the airport will _____ all luggage to ensure no illegal goods are brought into the country.

b, The government has introduced new laws to _____ the level of inflation and stabilize the economy.

c, Safety engineers regularly _____ the structural integrity of old underground railway tunnels to prevent accidents.

5, Aboard vs. Abroad

a, More and more students choose to go _____ for their higher education to experience new cultures.

b, Welcome _____ Flight VN123 to Singapore; please fasten your seatbelts and enjoy the journey.

c, She became one of the few female astronauts to travel _____ the international space station.

6, Action vs. Activity

a, Global leaders must take immediate _____ to combat the effects of climate change.

b, Outdoor _____ like hiking and painting are great ways for people to reduce stress after work.

c, The sudden drop in sales requires a quick _____ from the marketing team to solve the problem.

7, Advice vs. Advise a, Could you please _____ me on how to effectively structure an IELTS Writing Task 2 essay?

b, My teacher gave me some valuable _____ on how to improve my speaking fluency.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c, Doctors strongly _____ people to cut down on fast food to protect their long-term health.

8, Affect vs. Effect

a, The implementation of the new transport system will have a positive _____ on urban commuters.

b, Severe traffic congestion in the city center can seriously _____ the delivery times of goods.

c, Many psychologists believe that playing too many video games can negatively _____ a child's social skills.

.

LIVEWORKSHEETS