Reading Comprehension

Centerville High School is having its annual school play in the auditorium on October 31. Ms. Johnson, the school's drama teacher, will be conducting tryouts for all the parts. She will also be the play's director. Please sign up if you have acted in other plays. If you don't have any experience, that's okay too. Now is your chance! There are twenty speaking roles. Even if you don't want to act, there are other ways you can help. We need artists who can design the set. We need strong boys and girls who can move heavy items on and off the stage. We also need stage light operators and someone who can open and close the curtain. Students who don't want to participate can still help. You can be our audience during rehearsals. This is going to be a great chance for everyone. Don't miss out!
