Hi,

My family and I have some free time this weekend, but we cannot decide what to do together. Should we have a picnic, watch a movie, or visit a theme park?

What do you think?

Personally, I think you should go for a picnic at a nearby park and enjoy some outdoor games together, such as badminton, water balloon, or even scavenger hunt.

Hi Sofea,

It is great that you are planning to spend some quality time with your family.

Iman

I hope you and your family will have a happy and enjoyable weekend together.

Don't forget to also take family photos to create wonderful memories.

How's everything?

Regards,

On top of that, you can cook a delicious meal or watch a movie at home.
