

Ex.1. Complete the sentences with the correct preposition.

1. The suspect was accused stealing money from the bank.
2. He was arrested drunk driving.
3. She became a victim online fraud.
4. The man is currently on trial murder.
5. The police charged him robbery.
6. The criminal committed a crime financial gain.
7. The defendant was convicted tax evasion.
8. The judge punished him dangerous driving.
9. The court sentenced the criminal five years in prison.
10. You must accept the consequences your actions.

Ex.2. Match the beginnings and endings

A	B
1. accuse someone	a. to ten years in prison
2. arrest a suspect	b. with theft
3. be a victim	c. for murder
4. charge a suspect	d. of cybercrime
5. convict a criminal	e. for speeding
6. sentence a criminal	f. of identity theft

Ex.3. Fill in the gaps with the correct word from the box.

deter • set him up • evil intent • violation • homicide • hardened criminal • convict • assault

A man was arrested after an alleged _____ outside a nightclub. At first, police believed it might be a case of _____, but further investigation showed that the victim had survived. The suspect claimed that someone had tried to _____, while prosecutors argued that his actions showed clear _____. The jury eventually decided to _____ him. Although the media called him a _____, his lawyer argued that this description was unfair. The judge also reminded the public that severe penalties exist to _____ others from committing similar crimes and that any _____ of the defendant's legal rights could affect the case.