

There Is or There Are

Is - refers to only one thing - singular.

Are - refers to more than one thing - plural.

Directions: Fill in the blanks with is or are for each sentence.

-
1. There _____ a fly in my soup!
 2. There _____ one cloud in the sky.
 3. There _____ a strange sound coming from the other room.
 4. There _____ six eggs left in the carton.
 5. There _____ no place like home.
 6. There _____ a surprise party planned for him.
 7. There _____ too many toys in the toy box.
 8. There _____ mice living in the attic.
 9. There _____ letters in the mailbox.
 10. There _____ a cat wandering in our yard.
- 