We live in a nice apartment near the city center. It was a very quiet neighborhood, but we now have some new neighbors and everything has changed. They play loud music late at night, shout at one another, throw things at the wall ... I'm sure you understand. I am afraid to speak to them because maybe they will shout at me.

Hi!
I am a first-year college student. I have to pay for college and this is an expensive city, so I need a job. I can't work every day because I have my studies. But my weekends are free, and I can work during the vacations. What work can I find?
