

Word Bank

- independent
- commitment
- compromise
- supportive
- balance
- quality time
- prioritize
- lifestyle
- personal growth
- decision-making
- communication

Fill in the Blanks

Use the words from the box to complete the paragraph. Each word is used only once.

Sarah and David have been married for five years. They believe that a healthy relationship requires (1) _____ from both partners. Although they are both (2) _____ and have successful careers, they always make time for each other.

Every weekend, they spend (3) _____ by cooking together or going for a walk. They know that good (4) _____ helps them solve problems without arguing.

When they have different opinions, they are willing to (5) _____ and respect each other's ideas. They also (6) _____ their family over unnecessary work because they understand what is most important in life.

To maintain a healthy (7) _____, they exercise regularly, eat nutritious food, and get enough rest. They believe that having a good (8) _____ between work and family life makes them happier.

Both of them also support (9) _____ by learning new skills and setting personal goals. Finally, careful (10) _____ allows them to manage their expenses and save money for the future.