Verbs forms & verb patterns

Some verbs need to have another word (an object) after them: transitive verbs.
Example: to say (something); to take (something)
Some other verbs do not have an object after them: intransitive verbs.
Example: to say; to yawn; to sneeze
Sometimes a verb must be followed by other grammar words or patterns, like:

verb + object	e.g. Let's discuss the plan.
verb + object + question word	e.g. He asked me where to find her.
verb + object + infinitive	e.g. They told us to wait outside.
verb + "that"	e.g. I suggest that you go alone.
verb + object + "that"	e.g. She warned me that it was expensive.
