Boy: Can I colour this picture? It's great!
Woman: Yes. You can. The children are camping.
Boy: I know. Look at their tents! Can I colour one?
Woman: Why don't you colour the one at the front of the picture?
Boy: OK. Shall I colour it red? I love that colour.
Woman: Yes, good.

1

Boy: They've got a good fire.
Woman: That's right. It's nice and safe in those stones. There are two children next to it.
Boy: Yes, they're singing and playing.
Woman: Do you want to colour one of the (1) _____?
Boy: Yes. I'll colour the small one (2) _____.
Woman: OK.

2

Woman: Now can you find the (3) _____?
Boy: Yes. There's some writing on the board above it. A word is missing.
Woman: Yes, can you write the missing word? Write "(4) _____".
Boy: Yes, OK. I'll do that now.
Woman: Well done! You're good at writing!

3

Boy: Can I colour a (5) _____?
Woman: OK, why not? Which one do you want to colour? The one on the blanket?
Boy: No, I'll do the other one. Which colour shall I do it?
Woman: How about (6) _____? That's a nice colour.
Boy: OK. I like it, too.

4

Woman: What do you want to do now?
Boy: I'd like to write something on that piece of wood in front of the trees.
Woman: OK, the one that tells people which way to go.
Boy: Where's it pointing to?
Woman: The (7) _____. Can you write that word?
Boy: Yes, I can (8) _____ that. OK, I've done that now.
Woman: Great. Perhaps the children can go there later.

5

Boy: Can I colour something else now?
Woman: Yes, what do you want to colour?
Boy: How about the big (9) _____? Shall I do it grey?
Woman: No, make it (10) _____.
Boy: OK, I've finished!
Woman: Fantastic! What a great picture.
