Word Formation

For questions 1–10, read the text below. Use the word given in CAPITALS at the end of each line to form a word that fits in the gap.

Travelling independently can be an exciting experience, but good (1) _____ is essential before setting off on a long journey. Careful planning helps travellers avoid unnecessary problems and enjoy their trip more fully.	PREPARE
Many experienced backpackers recommend travelling with only the most (2) _____ items because carrying heavy luggage can quickly become exhausting.	ESSENCE
It is also important to keep passports and valuable documents in a safe place for extra (3) _____ against theft or loss.	PROTECT
Modern technology has made international travel much (4) _____ than it was in the past. Online maps, translation apps and electronic tickets have all made travelling more convenient.	EASY
Solo (5) _____ should remember that meeting local people is often one of the most rewarding parts of any journey.	TRAVEL
Good (6) _____ is another important factor. Booking transport and accommodation before leaving home can save both time and money.	ORGANISE
Although travelling is usually enjoyable, unexpected situations can sometimes be (7) _____, especially for inexperienced tourists.	DANGER
Experienced travellers always make (8) _____ decisions about what to pack and what to leave behind.	SENSE
Travel experts often make useful (9) _____ about local customs, transport and accommodation before people visit a new country.	RECOMMEND
In the end, the success of any journey often depends on good planning, sensible choices and the (10) _____ to stay calm when things do not go exactly as expected.	DECIDE

LIVEWORKSHEETS