NAME: _____ DATE: _____

SCIENCE VOCABULARY

Vocabulary	Meaning
Turn into	to measure how hot or cold something is.
Cool	A state of matter that retains its shape.
Melt	to make something hotter.
Measure the temperature	A state of matter with no fixed shape or volume.
Solid	to become ice or a solid due to cold.
Heat	A state of matter that flows and takes the shape of its container..
Gas	To change from a solidd to a liquid.
Freeze	To heat a liquid until it boils
Liquid	to make something colder.
Boil	to become another state or form.

turn into, cool, melt, measure the temperature, solid, heat, gas, freeze, liquid, boil

- Chocolate can _____ if you leave it in a warm car.
- Helium inside a party balloon is a _____.
- We need to _____ the soup on the stove because it is too cold.
- Milk is a _____ that we keep in the fridge.
- If the weather is extremely cold, the lake will _____ over.
- A doctor will _____ of a sick patient.
- Wood is a _____ because it does not change its shape easily.
- When the water is ready to _____, you will see many bubbles.
- Caterpillars eventually _____ beautiful butterflies.
- Put the hot cookies on a tray to _____ before decorating them.

LIVEWORKSHEETS