

INTERMEDIATE PLUS 2

MID-TERM TEST

USE OF ENGLISH - UNIT 4C SO - UNIT 5 EF

1) Choose the correct words to complete the conversations.

Conversation 1

A: Have you ¹heard / seen about the tiger that ²rescued / escaped from the zoo?

B: That ³looks / sounds scary. What happened?

A: ⁴Apparently / Appeared, it got into the city. Luckily, no one was hurt and they managed to catch it.

B: That's a ⁵lucky / relief.

Conversation 2

A: Are you ⁶following / hearing the story about the family who were thrown out of their home?

B: No. What's happened?

A: The story's gone ⁷trending / viral on social media. It ⁸remembers / seems that a lot of people are upset about it.

B: Really? ⁹I believed / I had no idea.

A: Yes, and some people have organised a ¹⁰march / strike through the town centre.

2) Complete the text using the correct form of the verbs in brackets: past simple, past continuous or past perfect.

On 6 July 2008, one of the greatest tennis matches ever played (1)_____ (take) place at Centre Court at Wimbledon. Rafael Nadal and Roger Federer (2)_____ (play) for the third consecutive Wimbledon title, and the tension on court was extraordinary. Federer (3)_____ (win) the previous two Wimbledon finals against Nadal, and he was now chasing a sixth consecutive title, a record that no one (4)_____ (reach) since the 1880s.

Nadal took the first two sets convincingly, but as the match progressed, Federer (5)_____ (find) his composure and began to fight back. Rain (6)_____ (delay) the game twice, but both players returned to court each time more determined than before.

As the fifth set began, night (7)_____ (fall over) Centre Court. Federer held his serve bravely to stay in the match, but Nadal (8)_____ (win) the crucial break in game fifteen of the set.

When Nadal finally (9)_____ (fall) flat on his back on the grass after the final point, he (10)_____ (achieve) what so many had said was impossible: defeating Federer on his home court and ending his sixty-five-match winning streak on grass.