Possessive Pronouns

Back to School

Fill in the blanks with: my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. I have got a new backpack. _____ backpack is blue.
2. You have got a ruler. _____ ruler is on the desk.
3. Emma has got a notebook. _____ notebook is purple.
4. Tom has got a pencil case. _____ pencil case is very big.
5. The school has got a library. _____ library is quiet.
6. We have got a new classroom. _____ classroom has many posters.
7. Lucy and Ben have got scissors. _____ scissors are in the box.
8. I have got a red pen. _____ pen is in my school bag.
9. You have got an English book. _____ English book is open.
10. Sophie has got a lunch box. _____ lunch box is pink.
11. Jack has got a calculator. _____ calculator is new.
12. The computer has got a screen. _____ screen is clean.
13. We have got a music teacher. _____ music teacher is very kind.
14. Mia and Leo have got art projects. _____ art projects are beautiful.
15. I have got an eraser. _____ eraser is small.
16. You have got a dictionary. _____ dictionary is on the shelf.
17. Anna has got crayons. _____ crayons are in the pencil case.
18. David has got a school uniform. _____ school uniform is clean.
19. The classroom has got a whiteboard. _____ whiteboard is very big.
20. My friends have got new desks. _____ desks are next to the window.

LIVEWORKSHEETS