

A day in new york

A. VOCABULARY: places in the city

Match the sentences (1–14) with the places (a–n).

- | | | |
|--|---------------|-----------------|
| 1 "I like animals." | _____ n _____ | a bookstore |
| 2 "I want a new book." | _____ | b café |
| 3 "I'm a doctor." | _____ | c college |
| 4 "I love movies." | _____ | d hospital |
| 5 "I'm a student, and I'm 20 years old." | _____ | e hotel |
| 6 "I'm a student, and I'm 12 years old." | _____ | f mall |
| 7 "I'm from the United States. I'm in Lima for five days." | _____ | g movie theater |
| 8 "I love pictures by great artists." | _____ | h museum |
| 9 "I want an expensive dinner." | _____ | i park |
| 10 "I want coffee and a cookie." | _____ | j restaurant |
| 11 "My children play with their friends after school." | _____ | k school |
| 12 "I don't have milk or sugar at home." | _____ | l store |
| 13 "I want some earphones, a camera, and tea." | _____ | m supermarket |
| 14 "I want new furniture." | _____ | n zoo |

B. GRAMMAR: there's/there are

Complete the sentences about Amy's apartment. Use there's or there are.

I live in a small town. In our town _____ a big park, but _____ no zoo. _____ a big supermarket, too, and _____ three stores. My daughter goes to school and my husband is a teacher at the school. _____ an interesting bookstore. _____ two really good restaurants!

Complete the conversation about Don's hotel. Use no, a, some, a lot of.

Do you like your hotel, Don?

Yes, I do. It's a big hotel! There are ¹ _____ rooms.

Does the hotel have a restaurant?

Yes, it has ² _____ big restaurant. I eat breakfast in the restaurant every day.

What about the restaurants near the hotel? Are they good?

Yes. There are ³ _____ great restaurants near the hotel. Italian, Japanese, Spanish ...

And is your room good?

It's OK. There's ⁴ _____ desk, ⁵ _____ chair, and ⁶ _____ big TV, but there's ⁷ _____ sofa. It's not good!