

Greetings curious travellers, The passports remain hidden.

Only teamwork unlocks first chances to succeed.

Every challenge hides clue where you least expect it.

Your determination alone is what truly matters.

Success waits patiently in unexpected places today.

Search carefully beyond the obvious if you hope to win.

Listen closely because Languages holds more than ordinary lessons.

Head straight towards Room. Don't waste precious time.

Soon you'll arrive London dreams are still possible.

Watch for those buses because nothing is accidental.

Not all answers are easy to find.

Prove yourselves today beautiful! Impress me, and your passports may return.

You thought your end-of-year trip to London would be easy, didn't you? Unfortunately for you, I now have every single one of your passports. Without them, there will be no plane, no sightseeing, no shopping, and certainly no London adventure.

If you ever want to see your passports again, you'll have to prove that your class deserves them. Hidden throughout the school are challenges that will test your English, your teamwork, your logic, and your determination. Solve each task correctly to earn the clues that will lead you from one location to the next.

Be careful: every minute counts, every clue matters, and mistakes will only slow you down.

Good luck... you'll need it.
