1. READING COMPREHENSION: Read the text and answer the questions.

Sarah has always enjoyed learning foreign languages. In fact, she has been studying English since she was eight years old. After graduating from university, she started working as a translator for an international company.

Two years ago, she was offered the opportunity to work abroad. Although moving to another country seemed challenging, she accepted the offer and relocated to Canada. At first, she found it difficult to adapt to the weather and lifestyle. However, things gradually improved.

One day, while she was travelling to work, she met a woman whose family owned a language school. They became friends and eventually started working together on educational projects. Since then, Sarah has participated in several programmes that help immigrants improve their communication skills.

Looking back, she believes that moving abroad was one of the best decisions she has ever made. She plans to continue working in education and hopes to open her own language centre in the future.
