VOCABULARY PRACTICE

1. Choose the correct answer. Pay attention to the words in bold.
   a. She writes about ordinary events.
      i. There's nothing special about them.
      ii. They don't happen very often.
   b. These stories are myths.
      i. The events are all true.
      ii. The events aren't true.
   c. The performance is incredible.
      i. We are bored.
      ii. We are enjoying it.
   d. These drawings are ancient.
      i. The artist is well known.
      ii. They are thousands of years old.
   e. Your blog is very amusing.
      i. I can't stop laughing.
      ii. I can't stop crying.
   f. The setting of this story is interesting.
      i. It happens in 25th-century Europe.
      ii. The ending is surprising.

2. Complete the sentences with the words below.

   awful– fairy tale– poet– journal– legend

   a. My sister always keeps a _____ when she travels.
   b. Readers enjoy reading the _____ of King Arthur.
   c. The film is _____. I'm leaving the cinema now.
   d. My favourite _____ is Cinderella.
   e. Amanda Gorman is a young _____ from the US.

LIVEWORKSHEETS