

Simple Past vs. Simple Present (2)

Pronoun	Present Simple (every day, today)	Past Simple (yesterday, last week)
I	am / am not	was / wasn't
He / She / It	is / isn't
You / We / They	are / aren't	were / weren't

Part A: Read the sentences and tick (✓)

1. The water is very hot now. [] Present [] Past
2. We were at the zoo last Sunday. [] Present [] Past
3. I was tired yesterday morning. [] Present [] Past
4. Look! The cats are on your schoolbag. [] Present [] Past
5. The cookies weren't on the table. [] Present [] Past

Part B: Choose the correct answer.

1. I (am / was) ten years old now, but I wasn't ten last year.
2. Hudson (is / was) sick last week, so he wasn't at school.
3. The weather (isn't / wasn't) rainy today; it is very sunny and hot.
4. Oscar and Gina (are / were) at the park right now.
5. Where (are / were) you yesterday afternoon?
6. Look! The little birds (are / were) in the tree now.
7. My hands (are / were) dirty two minutes ago, but they are clean now.
8. Mom (isn't / wasn't) at home last night; she was at work.

