III. Put the words into the correct category.

a comedy a skill hanging out going to the park aerobics collecting books the news visiting relatives a book a language a poem judo chatting making crafts the newspaper having meals together gardening a musical instrument skating a drama visiting museums cycling to nearby villages doing DIY projects volleyball messaging friends a game show

1. Going to a place
2. Having hobbies
3. Learning something
4. Playing sports
5. Reading
6. Socializing with friends
7. Spending time with family
8. Watching TV

IV. Match two parts of the sentences.

1. My grandmother is fond	a. exciting to play that detective game.
2. Many young people are interested	b. on trying new recipes for pizzas.
3. Katie is crazy	c. of knitting scarves at Christmas.
4. My friend Jamie is really	d. doing DIY with his older brother.
5. The chef is keen	e. in taking photos of plants and flowers.
6. The tourists would like	f. into listening to folk music.
7. Most people have found it	g. about doing puzzles these days.
8. The child enjoys	h. to go sightseeing the city on a double decker.

LIVEWORKSHEETS