Questions 16-19. Read the text and answer the questions. A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct answer to each question.

There are many ways to clean the environment. First, we should try to recycle things. This means using old bottles, cans, and other materials. We can recycle paper, glass, and plastic. By doing this, we can reduce waste. Secondly, saving energy is essential. We can switch off lights when we leave a room and unplug chargers when they are not in use. This helps to reduce the amount of electricity we use. Additionally, we should try to close the tap while brushing our teeth. We can make a big difference. Finally, planting trees is a great way to help the environment. Trees clean the air and provide homes for animals.

Everyone can do something small, and together we can make a big change to help our planet.

Question 16. What is the main idea of the passage?

Questions 20-22. Read the following story and do the following task.

I'm Mark and my little sister's name is Katy. Last Saturday, we went to London with our parents. Mum drove us there in the car. Our cousin Michael came to London too, but he went by train, so we met him at King's Cross Station. He had a heavy rucksack with him. "Put your rucksack in our car, Michael," Dad said. "We're going to walk now." "No, thanks. I might need it," Michael said.

We went to the dinosaur museum first. I asked Dad lots of questions, but he didn't know the answers. Michael took a book about dinosaurs out of his rucksack. "Here you are!" he said to Dad. "Thanks, Michael," said Dad. When we left the museum, it was raining. "It's OK," said Michael. I've got an umbrella in my rucksack.

In the afternoon, we wanted to go to the cinema, but we couldn't find it. Michael took a map of London out of his rucksack, and we soon found the street where the cinema was.

Fill each blank in the following sentences with ONE word from the text.

Last Saturday, Mark, his sister Katy, and their parents went to London by (20) _____.

At the dinosaur museum, Michael gave Mark's Dad a (21) _____, and he could find the information he needed about the animals. Later, when they couldn't find the cinema, Michael used a (22) _____ from his rucksack to locate it.
