108. Today, thankfully, women tennis players are not encumbered with long, heavy skirts and high-necked blouses.

A. influenced B. hampered C. reassured D. inspired

109. The indiscriminate use of pesticides can do harm to the harvest.

A. careful B. detailed C. accurate D. unplanned

110. These recently published articles only reinforce the view that unemployment rates will continue to rise.

A. discover B. deny C. strengthen D. oppose

111. There is no clear legal responsibility for businesses to disseminate usable information about their business.

A. invent B. distribute C. classify D. adapt

112. He shows utter contempt for all his relatives who come to his house every Sunday.

A. liking B. peacefulness

C. determination D. disrespect

113. He asked me if there was any point in the foreseeable future when I'd like to have children.

A. predictable B. unpredictable

C. comfortable D. unable

114. There's a firm distinction between the moderate consumption of alcoholic beverages and overindulgence to the point of intoxication.

A. drunkenness B. poison

C. sleepiness D. excitement

115. The prime minister was commended for his handling of the health crisis.

A. criticised B. combined

C. praised D. appointed

116. The idea of going to his party without being accompanied by anyone appals me.

A. embarrasses B. appoints C. horrifies D. excites

LIVEWORKSHEETS