

is Your tone passive-aggressive?

A. VOCABULARY: communication

Complete the sentences using the words below.

corrosive | offensive | kiss-off | guise | pseudo-compliment |
begrudge | glib | pique | feigned | blurt out | insult | faux-backtracker
proffer | silent crybaby | scorn

1. His _____ apology sounded rehearsed, and nobody believed he was truly sorry.
2. Instead of discussing the issue respectfully, she ended the conversation with a dismissive _____.
3. Telling someone, "You're surprisingly smart," is actually a _____ because it hides criticism inside praise.
4. Constant sarcasm and resentment can have a _____ effect on a relationship over time.
5. He tried to _____ an apology, but it felt insincere after everything he had said.
6. She didn't _____ her colleague's promotion; she genuinely celebrated his success.
7. The comedian's joke was considered highly _____ by many members of the audience.
8. During the meeting, he accidentally _____ his real opinion before thinking about the consequences.
9. His _____ remarks made the audience question whether he had really thought about the issue.
10. The politician criticized his opponent under the _____ of offering "constructive feedback."
11. Feeling ignored filled her with _____, and she became distant for the rest of the day.
12. Rolling your eyes after someone speaks is often interpreted as a sign of _____.
13. After making a rude comment, he became a classic _____ by saying, "That's not what I meant."
14. Calling someone lazy in front of the whole team was clearly intended as an _____.
15. Instead of expressing his frustration openly, he became a _____, refusing to speak to anyone for the rest of the evening.