

510. It's difficult for a small shop to compete _____ the big supermarkets.

- A. against B. at C. in D. of

511. From the question propounded by visitors, one can be convinced that too little is known _____ government services.

- A. over B. of C. to D. on

512. Police are investigating how £20 million was illegally transferred _____ the trust's bank account.

- A. to B. from C. out D. through

513. I couldn't keep _____ smiling when she told me what she'd done.

- A. over B. of C. from D. up

514. Parents in this country take little notice _____ their children's psychological development.

- A. in B. on C. of D. from

515. _____ common with many mothers, she felt torn between family and work

- A. Over B. In C. To D. On

516. The council is encouraging the development of the property _____ both employment and recreation.

- A. to B. for C. out D. through

517. The committee decided in favour _____ the cheapest option.

- A. over B. of C. from D. on

518. He referred _____ the dictionary for the correct spelling of the word.

- A. of B. at C. in D. to

519. I wonder if the game will ever catch _____ with young people?

- A. to B. on C. out D. for

520. We are eating ourselves out of house and home and despoiling our nest _____ the bargain.

- A. over B. of
C. from D. into