

660. Stand the bottles _____ the table over there.

- A. on B. with C. of D. into

661. Newton's laws of mechanics stood _____ over two hundred years.

- A. in B. over C. about D. for

662. The room was empty except for a wardrobe standing _____ one corner.

- A. on B. into C. in D. over

663. The new director has set a lot of changes _____ motion in our department.

- A. over B. at C. up D. in

664. The security guard saw the protesters _____ the premises.

- A. from B. to C. with D. off

665. The president has announced she does not intend to stand _____ re-election.

- A. for B. with C. of D. into

666. Traditional booksellers face stiff competition _____ companies selling via the Internet.

- A. in B. over C. about D. from

667. In this business, we always have to be aware _____ the competition.

- A. on B. into C. of D. over

668. Both sides involved in the conflict made some concessions _____ yesterday's talks.

- A. over B. at C. up D. in

669. I don't share your confidence _____ the market improving next year.

- A. in B. to
C. with D. off

670. Our goal is to improve conformity _____ customer requirements.

- A. for B. with
C. of D. into