15. I blow a fuse when the man living next door often plays loud music at midnight.

A. remain calm
B. get angry
C. become uninterested
D. keep pessimistic

16. You have to hold your tongue during the party; there's a lot of guests there.

A. say much
B. become furious
C. keep silent
D. say important things

17. The candidate got cold feet when asked an array of questions at the job interview.

A. became angry
B. remained positive
C. was confident
D. became nervous

18. When he started to ask what time it was, I got the message and told him that I had to leave.

A. became unaware
B. failed to text him
C. got a call from him
D. understood

19. He's really made a go of his new coffee shop; he's employed 10 more people to work on night shifts.

A. became successful with
B. failed to succeed with
C. invested more in
D. felt pessimistic with

20. The team spent nearly ten hours solving this problem, but they just drew a blank.

A. succeeded in finding a solution
B. dealt with it successfully
C. came up with novel ideas
D. were unable to find an answer

21. He's trying to get an 8 in the IELTS test, but so far he's come up against a brick wall and has got only a 7.

A. become successful
B. encountered some obstacles
C. spent lots of money
D. built some walls

Đăng Ký Khóa Học Online Tại Fanpage: Tài Liệu Khóa Học UniMap
LIVEWORKSHEETS