

84. Some experts advise that you shouldn't lose weight by eating like a bird.

- A. eating very much
- B. eating only meat
- C. eating only vegetables
- D. eating very little

85. Shala's been like a cat on hot bricks all day because she couldn't find the key to her apartment.

- A. been relaxed
- B. become anxious
- C. felt unwell
- D. been tired

86. They've been arguing about this matter till the cows come home, but they can't solve anything.

- A. unexpectedly
- B. for a long time
- C. for a short period of time
- D. abruptly

87. You need to get your ducks in a row to make a good impression on the interviewer.

- A. become forgetful
- B. become well-prepared
- C. become extinct
- D. become lethargic

88. He's never played golf before, but he's taken it like a duck to water.

- A. failed to adapt to it
- B. refused to learn it
- C. learned it very quickly
- D. stopped trying it

89. Her attitude to same-sex marriage always gets my goats, so I just don't want to talk with her about it.

- A. annoys me
- B. interests me
- C. disappoints me
- D. interrupts me

90. The company decided to spend the lion's share of its budget to help victims of the recent earthquake.

- A. the most interesting part
- B. the most boring part
- C. the largest part
- D. the smallest part

91. The loud music coming from the man living next door is driving me up the wall.

- A. motivating me
- B. annoying me
- C. confusing me
- D. worrying me