

236. Our kids will go bananas when they are told that their trip to the zoo has been cancelled due to heavy rain.

- A. angry
- B. enthusiastic
- C. pessimistic
- D. disappointed

237. She didn't give a hoot about learning a foreign language, and she regretted it a few years later.

- A. didn't care much about
- B. attached little importance to
- C. paid much attention to
- D. made a good impression on

238. He couldn't get the position he wanted, and now he's trying to lick his wounds.

- A. be injured
- B. get back his happiness
- C. be safe
- D. make him more disappointed

239. You failed the driving test, but it's not the end of the world. Please look on the bright side.

- A. be confident
- B. be determined
- C. be pessimistic
- D. be optimistic

240. Although Tim didn't get the results he had wanted in the mid-term test, he decided to keep a stiff upper lip and focus on his study.

- A. hide his feelings
- B. remain calm
- C. conceal his thoughts
- D. express his emotions

241. The idea of speaking in front of a large audience makes my flesh crawl.

- A. cheers me up
- B. disappoints me
- C. worries me
- D. frightens me

242. When I told Tim that his proposal had been dismissed by the board of directors, he didn't turn a hair.

- A. washed his hair
- B. dyed his hair
- C. showed his feelings
- D. hid his emotions

