

278. The English test was a piece of cake; all of my students sailed through it.

- A. relaxing B. tedious C. simple D. complex

279. Don't tell Jack about Linda's surprise party; he's always spilling the beans.

- A. telling a boring story
B. hiding a secret
C. telling an interesting story
D. revealing a secret

280. If you read the manual more than three times, you can get the hang of it.

- A. get bored with it B. understand it easily
C. fail to understand it D. be able to write a similar one

281. Thanks to his dedication to protecting the environment, this candidate is certainly ahead of the pack.

- A. having less advantage B. more successful
C. gaining more power D. paying more attention

282. You have to pull your socks up if you want to finish the report on time.

- A. get furious B. lose confidence
C. work harder D. become lazy

283. The thought of standing up and singing a song sent chills down my spine.

- A. made me frightened B. made me less confident
C. made me relaxed D. made me disappointed

284. Don't hesitate anymore. It's time we got the show on the road!

- A. bought tickets for a show
B. travelled to a remote area
C. got started immediately
D. delayed taking actions

