

113. I realized that I _____ a splitting headache and that my knee joints were uncertain of their purpose when I stood up.
A. lent B. gave C. got D. delivered
114. We'd have to sell 2000 copies of the book to _____ even.
A. make B. do C. break D. have
115. My best friend decided to take a gap year and _____ his living by working at a restaurant.
A. sang B. booked C. earned D. delivered
116. Some students _____ their complaints about the service of the language centre.
A. voiced B. announced C. declared D. uttered
117. Petersen _____ the 400 metres record by over half a second.
A. felt B. smashed C. got D. fell
118. The employee was _____ to tears when her boss criticised her in front of the board of directors.
A. declined B. reduced C. diminished D. plunged
119. After many hours of researching, the team finally _____ the problem.
A. shattered B. crushed C. cracked D. crashed
120. He _____ fired from his job for poor performance.
A. felt B. made C. fell D. got
121. The old man who _____ the virus two weeks ago is now making a speedy recovery.
A. talked B. exchanged C. interacted D. contracted
122. They have taken important measures to _____ the problem of air pollution.
A. address B. record C. file D. apply
123. The pandemic has caused damage to our lives, but it's about to _____ to an end.
A. do B. lead C. come D. make