

124. Bob soon _____ a natural aptitude for taking care of young children when he was a sophomore at college.
A. unveiled B. revealed C. displayed D. published
125. In the summer months a different set of climatic factors _____ into play.
A. come B. turn C. reach D. arrive
126. She _____ a degree in physics from Edinburgh.
A. made B. lent C. gave D. had
127. Over 5,000 students _____ admission to our graduate business program each year.
A. send B. gain C. do D. pay
128. She must have been ecstatic when her boyfriend _____ a compliment on her new hairstyle.
A. lost B. paid C. kept D. caught
129. His dream of competing in the annual sporting event was _____ by a recent injury.
A. overcome B. given C. demolished D. shattered
130. Planners are committed to developing the city's brownfield sites before _____ permission to build on the rural outskirts.
A. finishing B. moving C. staying D. granting
131. Joe tried to _____ his bad habit of staying up too late.
A. jump B. break C. rush D. run
132. I can't understand what holds appeal to my son; he's been _____ to the computer screen for three hours!
A. stuck B. hooked C. glued D. attached
133. Last holiday, we stayed at a hotel _____ a wonderful view of sun-drenched beaches.
A. requiring B. commanding
C. adjuring D. enjoining

