

263. It took them six months to do _____ the house before they could actually move in.
A. up B. down C. in D. off
264. The movie was a bit boring and I dozed _____ halfway through.
A. off B. along C. up D. over
265. Her will was _____ up by a solicitor and witnessed by two colleagues.
A. brought B. taken C. grown D. drawn
266. My girlfriend _____ as a princess for my birthday party.
A. hitched up B. put on C. wore in D. dressed up
267. Unless something totally unexpected happens and oil _____ below $50 a barrel, fares will continue to rise.
A. calls up B. drops back C. goes up D. comes on
268. She stopped going to classes and _____ in her schoolwork.
A. dropped behind B. went on C. came over D. passed away
269. The publisher told the writers they should _____ by if they ever wanted a newspaper job.
A. stay B. put C. move D. drop
270. She spent most of the day dropping _____ friends in Edinburgh.
A. up with B. up against C. in on D. away
271. He dropped _____ school a month before graduation.
A. up with B. up against C. upon D. out of
272. Don't eat into your savings to _____ that fancy new smart phone.
A. pay for B. let out C. give in D. play down
273. We couldn't be bothered to cook so we _____ last night.
A. got through B. ate out C. filled in D. applied to
274. She graduated in 1962 and embarked _____ a career as a teacher.
A. on B. through C. down D. away