

87. Farmers are concerned that their food-bearing plants may be subjective to the rigours of a harsh winter.

- A. concerned                      B. food-bearing
C. subjective                      D. rigours

88. The amateur artist's debut song caused a sense and he even made his first public appearance on a popular show.

- A. debut                      B. sense                      C. appearance                      D. popular

89. The conversation revolted around some effects of climate change and feasible solutions.

- A. conversation                      B. revolted
C. effects                      D. feasible

90. The prime minister has been approached by parliamentary members for his sluggish decision to impose a 7-day national lockdown.

- A. approached                      B. parliamentary
C. sluggish                      D. impose

91. Despite leading a miserable life, the disabled man showed his resources in overcoming financial difficulties.

- A. miserable                      B. disabled
C. resources                      D. overcoming

92. Ever since my brother made a decision to come out, he has been prosecuted by relatives and even some childhood friends.

- A. decision                      B. come out
C. prosecuted                      D. childhood

93. Some urban dwellers may develop life-threatening diseases when they inhale several pollution released from a coal plant.

- A. dwellers                      B. life-threatening
C. inhale                      D. pollution

94. High school students flocked to the streets to protect against the government's decision to cancel the university entrance examination.

- A. flocked                      B. protect                      C. cancel                      D. entrance

