

95. A team of psychologists have conducted numerate studies to gain some insight into life in ancient times.

- A. numerate B. gain C. insight D. ancient

96. Social tensions amounted yesterday following the declaration issued by the government that social distancing rules would be enforced to help contain the spread of the virus.

- A. amounted B. issued C. enforced D. contain

97. Our research has shown that grown-ups are now less industrial and careful than older generations.

- A. research B. grown-ups
C. industrial D. generations

98. The team was praised for their efforts to do the research which was valueless for people with severe learning disabilities.

- A. praised B. valueless
C. severe D. disabilities

99. Research has indicated that children with autism from a young age are more likely to have an imaginative friend.

- A. indicated B. autism
C. age D. imaginative

100. Some health experts speculate that another health crisis is eminent unless people change their eating habits.

- A. speculate B. health crisis
C. eminent D. eating habits

101. The government promised to investigate tougher measures to rein in the spread of the deadly virus.

- A. promised B. investigate
C. tougher D. rein in

102. We drove through a desolate area which is inhabitable by birds and exotic plants.

- A. drove B. desolate C. inhabitable D. exotic

