103. Some parents claim that the star may set a bad example for their young children, but he argues that his influence on them is incident, not intentional.

A. claim
B. bad example
C. influence
D. incident

104. Rising unemployment rates are illustrious of a stagnant economy.

A. Rising
B. rates
C. illustrious
D. stagnant

105. He displayed an aptitude for writing from a very young age, so unsurprisingly he got favourite feedback about his first book.

A. displayed
B. aptitude
C. unsurprisingly
D. favourite

106. The intern produced a genuine idea for a marketing strategy to improve the company's image.

A. produced
B. genuine
C. strategy
D. image

107. He became the youngest athlete to win the championship after a nail-biting finale against last year's victor.

A. championship
B. nail-biting
C. finale
D. victor

108. Many metropolises have witnessed a massive flux of workers who come to seek better job opportunities.

A. witnessed
B. massive
C. flux
D. seek

109. Obviously, the public are more forgivable of the former president's mistakes than tabloids and members of parliament.

A. forgivable B. former C. mistakes D. tabloids

110. The article suggests that prolonged exposition to exhaust fumes can lead to a reduction in life expectancy.

A. prolonged B. exposition C. reduction D. life expectancy

Đăng Ký Khóa Học Online Tại Fanpage: Tài Liệu Khóa Học UniMap
LIVEWORKSHEETS