

111. This food blogger always extorts the virtues of eating less junk food and vegetarianism.

- A. food blogger
- B. extorts
- C. virtues
- D. vegetarianism

112. The restaurants which fail to meet the exact safety standards may be subject to a heavy fine.

- A. meet
- B. exact
- C. subject
- D. fine

113. The authorities launched an investigation to determine the extension of the damage caused by the massive earthquake.

- A. launched
- B. determine
- C. extension
- D. massive

114. In order to embark on overseas expanse, they had no choice but to rely heavily on borrowing.

- A. embark on
- B. expanse
- C. choice
- D. heavily

115. Translators are enjoyed to follow strict rules of translation when finding equivalent terms.

- A. enjoyed
- B. follow
- C. strict
- D. equivalent

116. The whole experience was encouraging, but he still made a concerted effort to improve the situation.

- A. experience
- B. encouraging
- C. concerted
- D. improve

117. Rachael almost explored with rage when it was brought home to her that her boyfriend had cheated on her.

- A. explored
- B. rage
- C. home
- D. cheated

118. He was criticised for his snap decision to expand his business in the current economical climate.

- A. snap
- B. expand
- C. economical
- D. climate