

167. Everyone in the office was in tears when the head precluded his remarks on past events.

- A. tears
- B. precluded
- C. remarks
- D. events

168. There's no need to be dejected since your failure to apply to that prestigious university might turn out to be a blessing in disgust.

- A. dejected
- B. prestigious
- C. blessing
- D. disgust

169. He became a disgraceful public figure when he was caught using drugs in the live concert.

- A. disgraceful
- B. figure
- C. caught
- D. live

170. The candidate had five points deduced from his total score after giving a wrong answer.

- A. points
- B. deduced
- C. total score
- D. wrong

171. They accused him of deliberate copying from their ideas, but he claimed that it was just advertent copying.

- A. accused
- B. deliberate
- C. claimed
- D. advertent

172. The long-winded speech delivered by the mayor was punctured by bursts of applause.

- A. long-winded
- B. delivered
- C. punctured
- D. bursts

173. Hundreds of thousands of fish species will be imperilled as a sequence of the oil spill.

- A. species
- B. imperilled
- C. sequence
- D. oil spill

174. The document won't be legally binding if it's not formerly approved by the judge.

- A. legally
- B. binding
- C. formerly
- D. judge

