Part 4.

Look at the picture.

Listen and look.

There is one example.

PAUSE 00'03"

M: Look at this, Emily. Can you see the drawing of the classroom?

Fch: Yes, I see it! There are desks, chairs, and even a blackboard.

M: That's right. Now, I have some coloured pencils here. Would you like to colour the objects in the classroom?

Fch: Yes, please!

M: Okay, let's start with the book on the blackboard. Can you find it?

Fch: Yes, it's right there! Can I colour it green?

M: Yes, you can. Go ahead and colour the book green.

REPEAT FROM HERE

One

M: Good job! Now, let's look for the book under the girl's hands. Can you see it?

Fch: Oh, I found it! Can I colour it red?

M: Yes, that's a good colour. Colour the book under the girl's hands red.

PAUSE 00'15"

Two

M: Now, let's find the book between the students. Do you see it?

Fch: Yes! It's right there!

M: Well done! Now colour that book, please.

Fch: Which colour for the book between the students?

M: Would you like to colour it orange?

Fch: Yes!

Three

M: Great! Now, let's look for the book on the floor. Where is it?

Fch: The book on the floor... Oh, there it is!

M: Choose the colour you want!

Fch: Yellow!

M: That's a beautiful colour! You can colour it yellow!

PAUSE 00'15"

Four

M: There's a book under the chair. Do you see it?

Fch: Yes! I can see a book under the chair.

M: Good! Can you make that book blue?

Fch: Of course! Blue is a nice colour for that book.

PAUSE 00'15"

Five

Fch: And what about the book in the teacher's hand?

M: Ah, that's a difficult one. Can you find it?

Fch: Yes, I see it now! Can I colour it pink?

M: Yes, you can. Colour the book in the teacher's hand pink.

Fch: Okay!
